GreenBliss EcoSpa – LA area

by Maureen @ 9:09 am post a comment »

Something to try when next in LA: Throw a GreenBliss EcoSpa party — all-organic — from the skincare products to champagne, light snacks and robes! Choose from an extensive menu of massage and treatments — facials, scrubs and reflexology and consider a yoga session or astrology reading to begin or end the soiree. Relax, detox, rejuvenate — you set the tone of the spa party, they set the table — what bliss!

Wellness Party Planner Randi Ragan, formerly a doc-filmmaker and writer, spent over 10 years as a yoga and spiritual retreat leader, counseling industry leaders in top spas and retreat centers in Southern California, Hawaii and Mexico. Combining her interest in eco-issues and natural health, and together with her massage therapist husband, Richard, GreenBliss EcoSpa was born. They and their staff are at your service whether you are in your home, or in your hotel accommodation. Cool way to celebrate a birthday, wedding shower or just because.

Randi and Richard support sustainable lifestyle choices, driving diesel cars fueled by vegetable oil and “greening up” their LA home for the past 4 years. GreenBliss EcoSpa party fees depend on services; select from their menu, and check out their product ingredients as well. Sweet!
