Pretty, Please

Blissy Missy Spa Parties for Girls

Lipstick on her collar told a tale on her. That's right. Little glamour puss has been fooling around in Mom's makeup drawer.

When beauty calls, give GreenBliss EcoSpa a holler. The mobile spa service throws bang-up Blissy Missy pamper parties for the Nickelodeon crowd.

Gather a group of at least eight gals (ages 5 and up) for a two-hour spoil fest. Guests slip into silky kimono robes and bamboo slippers for mani/pedis (using nontoxic polish, natch), mini facials, chair massages, and pretty hairdos with fresh flowers.

Goodie bags dazzle with age-appropriate products, like organic lip balm, custom-scented bubble bath, all-natural soaps, and more.

After all the oohs and ahs, you'll be blushing.
