Most people like to find serenity by gazing inward with quiet reflection. In L.A., where grid-locked commutes already provide so much quality solo time, eco-luxe nuts find their inner peace in large groups. Therein lies the success of Green Bliss' mobile eco-spa service. They do offer treatments to individuals; but their specialty is hosting spa parties wherever, whenever and for any occasion. They offer massage (clothed and nude options); scrubs, rubs and wraps; skin care and facials; as well as wellness packages such as intuitive hypnosis, shamanic house blessings and raw food consultations. Where possible their products are organic and local, and always fair trade. They are part of the Sustainable Business Council of L.A. and 1% of their profits go to charities like Natural Resources Defense Council, Los Angeles Coalition To End Hunger And Homelessness and Healthy Child Healthy World. E
