Throw an Easy Eco-Spa Party

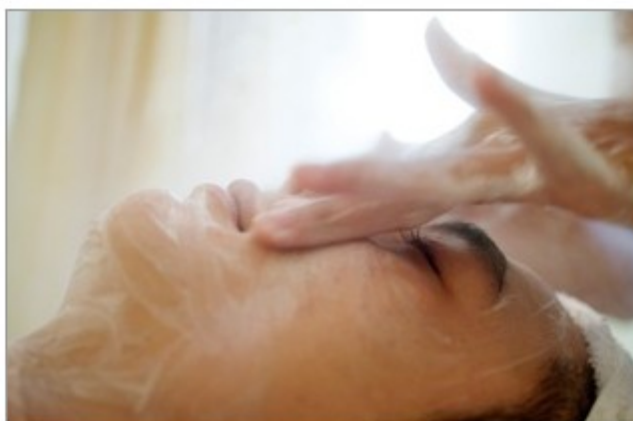

By Blythe Copeland | Thu Aug 21, 2008 14:40

Making your own bath and beauty products is an admirable pursuit, but even the most die-hard DIY'ers need a break now and then. That's where Green Bliss Eco Spa and its owner, Randi Ragan, come in, with organic facials, skin care, and eco-friendly manicures and pedicures. Green Bliss also saves resources by, well, using some of yours: the company offers in-home spa days for all ages, with massages, holistic body treatments, and reflexology, among other services, so the next time you need a vacation from trying to relax, you can be pampered without ever stepping foot outside.
